

A Liquid Mixture
Designed to Protect
COWS AND HORSES
From Torture by Flies

A Valuable Disinfectant and Germicide.

SO-BOS-SO (KILFLY) is a liquid mixture designed to protect cows and horses from torture of flies. The preparation is positively harmless. It is used with splendid results as a disinfectant and germicide. The Electric Sprayer discharges the So-bos-so (Kilfly) in a fine, broad spray. From 30 to 50 cows can be sprayed in a few moments. The Electric Sprayer is detachable, and thus may be thoroughly cleaned. If your animals are troubled with lice use So-bos-so (Kilfly). It knocks them out. Spray your poultry house with So-bos-so (Kilfly). It kills lice, or any vermin that may infect the fowls.

FOR HORSES.

So-bos-so (Kilfly) is invaluable as a disinfectant for spraying around the stable; at the same time prevents the irksome torture of flies. Used with splendid effect on horses while at work, especially draft horses, traveling at a slow pace and often times obliged to stand for long intervals, harnessed to the truck, exposed to the torture of the beastly flies, while the teamster is loading, unloading, or otherwise engaged. Blacksmiths will greatly appreciate the preparation. A moment's work with the Electric Sprayer and a little So-bos-so (Kilfly) will rid the shop of flies, and the horses stand perfectly quiet. Your use of So-bos-so (Kilfly) will result in more and better milk, more money, more comfort for cows, for horses, and for you. Kilfly has proved a perfect success in this Territory, and until the arrival of large invoices recently, we have been unable to fill all orders. We have now a supply on hand and more on the way. Sufferers from the HORSE FLY should give Kilfly a trial. We are the sole agents for the Territory of Hawaii.

NEW DOCK TO BE BUILT

Department Will Construct the Wharf.

ALL MATERIAL IS NOW READY

Work to Be Prosecuted so That the New Vessels May Be Accommodated.

Work upon the new dock at the Ewa end of the bay, which will be used for the big steamers which will be coming to this port consigned to Hackfeld & Company, will be inaugurated as soon as Superintendent of Public Works Boyd and Assistant Superintendent Campbell return to the city. The dock will be built by the department, the work not being let out by contract.

The supplies for the dock are now at hand. The contract for the timbers and copper were let to Hackfeld & Company and the piles and square stuff which will enter into the construction of the great wharf is all ready for the placing in the structure. There will be several months work before the laborers who will do the job and it will be pushed, as the new ships will be here early in the spring. There is some dredging to be done in the slips and it is planned to have this done as the construction proceeds so that there will be no delay in the carrying on of the work.

This work will cost in the neighborhood of $150,000 completed, and it is understood that arrangements have been made for the financing of the proposition so that the improvement may be made at once, without waiting for the coming in of money for carrying on the work. As there has been no appropriation for the work direct it may be done in this way and the payment for it made in the future, as will have to be done in the case of the channel or quarantine wharf.

The construction of the wharf will be under the direction of E. J. Cotton. When asked about the matter last evening Mr. Cotton said: "Mr. Boyd asked me to undertake the direction of this work. Cotton Bros. have nothing in the way of a contract with the government whatever. That is all that I can say on the matter."

BEVERLEY'S CLOWN
FOOLED OFFICER

Policeman Arrested St. Leon at the Circus for Simulating Drunkenness.

There were more large doings at the circus last night in which a clown and an ornament of the local police force were the prime movers.

It was St. Leon's turn to entertain, elevate and amuse. Now, St. Leon is one of the company's funny men, and his office last night was to simulate drunkenness. He did his work well.

He staggered around the ring as if beneath the burden of many Primos. He sang snatches of ribald songs. He held mauldin converse with the audience. He was to all appearances gloriously drunk, and withal glad of it.

Presently it came to Frank Beverley's turn to say his little speak and help things along. He pretended to be real mad with his clown.

"I never saw such a man," said he; "here am I, paying you a good salary, and you act like this. I ask you, is it gratitude? Is it fair to the ladies and gentlemen who have paid their hard-earned money for admission? Is it justice to your wife and little ones at home? You ought to be ashamed of yourself, you contemptible cur."

Just then St. Leon, who had been gradually edging under the storm of Beverley's simulated abuse, to a spot where a police officer was standing, became more unruly than ever, and started to make his way out of the ring into the gallery.

Quick as a flash the policeman saw his duty, and did it. Seizing St. Leon by the arm he said in awesome tones:

"Come along with me, young man. I arrest you for disturbing the performance, and hereby caution you that anything you may say will be used as evidence against you. You'd better come quiet."

It took the united efforts of Frank Beverley, the pianist, the contortionists, the wonderful New Zealand educated horse Tapu, and the intelligent dogs and monkeys to persuade that zealous guardian of the peace that St. Leon's condition was the result of skilful acting and not due to the absorption of the product of the local brewery.

Catholic Fair and Luau.

The fair and luau to be held on Saturday, November 30, in the Drill Shed for the benefit of the Sisters of the Sacred Heart Convent on Fort Street, will be a big affair according to the plans being laid by those in charge. The managing committee asks for the hearty co-operation of all ladies who were at any time pupils at the convent, together with their friends, to assist in making the affair a success. Many representative families in Honolulu have been educated by those worthy women, although non-Catholics, and they have expressed a desire to assist. Mrs. S. C. Allen, a former pupil, is at the head of the management, and a meeting is called for this morning at 10 o'clock to be held at the club room of the Catholic Mission on Fort Street.

KIPLING'S PEN OUT AGAIN.

Articles Denouncing Impotence of British Army Chiefs.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—"In spite of the pledges of the government, the whole army machine is to be hauled back as soon as it may be to the old ruts of impotence, pretense and collapse," writes Rudyard Kipling in a striking letter to the Spectator upon the appointment of Sir Redvers Buller and Sir Evelyn Wood to command army corps.

This pungent sentence voices the national feeling which has prevailed this week without regard to party politics.

"Men see," adds Mr. Kipling, "that the chosen commanders are not quite in touch with the real army, which with a little tact and a little seriousness might so easily survive. It is not the triviality or inaptitude displayed in this matter that appeals, but the cynical levity."

EPWORTH LEAGUE
MOONLIGHT RIDE

Fifty Members Are the Guests of the Young Brothers.

The members of the Epworth League of the Methodist Church were the guests of the Young Brothers last evening, the entertainment taking the form of a moonlight ride about the harbor, and refreshments at the island home of the hosts. There were about fifty members of the league responded to the invitation, and spent the evening upon the waters of the bay. There was a complete round of the harbor made, the launches going out to where the lights of the battleship Wisconsin outlined the mass of the great ship, and then the return was made to the home of the Messrs. Young. There there was a four spent in games and partaking of refreshments, after which there was another ride about the harbor before the good nights. The evening was enlivened with music, several of the young people taking musical instruments with them. The arrangements were made by Mrs. Katherine Clark, the chairman of the social committee. Among the guests were the following:

The Rev. G. L. Pearson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Downing, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kerns, Mr. A. J.
